

Would you like me to Personally
help you remove your money blocks, so you can become a successful and wealthy entrepreneur just as you had planned?

Dear Entrepreneur,

I know exactly what you're going through, because that's what I went through myself as a new entrepreneur for years, bringing all my money blocks and other issues into my business.

No matter what I did, I didn't seem to be able to break the mold of what I thought back then was just bad luck.

As a matter of fact, instead of making money, I incurred more debts than I ever had before in my life. I was stuck and I didn't know what to do about it.

As a matter of fact, I would have been my own dream client, which is someone willing to succeed and trying desperately to do so, but being stuck in my money lack mentality.

If I had known of a coach who did what I do today, I would have hired them right away, but I didn't know of any.

Later on I even hired coaches that were not the type of coaches I needed, so I stayed stuck in my financial hell some more.

I thought that what I needed was a business strategy when what I needed was to remove my mental money blocks first.

If that's how you feel right now, I can help you!

It is possible to make a 180° shift in your money story by removing your money blocks, no matter what they are and where they come from.

Today I've been traveling Europe for the past 14 months at the time I'm writing this letter.

I went from living in a rented apartment in North Carolina with an abusive partner to being able to travel to Scotland, Ireland, England, Spain, France and soon Italy.

All of this in a rather short period of time.

So, I know that I can help you. But I can only help you if you're ready for it and if you fit the bill.

For me to be able to help you you need to meet these 3 criteria:

1- You have an open mind and you are willing to learn new things that you may have never thought of or heard about before.

2- Even though you may still be holding a job, you have an entrepreneurial mindset, and you are planning on leaving your, or have already left your job in order to start your own business.

3- You are willing to take actions under my guidance.

4- You are fully committed to make a change in your financial story.

5- You are ready to invest in your own future.

I do not wish to work with just anyone as long as they pay me. I do not need that and I do not want that either.

My purpose is to work with the right clients - my dream clients.

People who are the right fit for me and who feel that I'm the right coach for them.

Why?

Because when people hire the wrong coach for them, and do not see any change in their life, they resent the coach, whether the coach did his/her job or not.

I know this first hand, because it's happened to me. I know what it feels to hire the wrong coach, believe me. And I do not want this to happen to you, because it's a pretty sucky feeling.

So, in order for you not to ever feel that way about me and my work with you, and because I truly want only happy clients, this is how I will work with you...

First off, I want to specify that the offer you're reading about right now is available ONLY to the people in my list and those who found me through this letter.

I do not offer this to everyone out there, so you are in for a special treat. But it's ONLY for serious people. I do not have any time to lose with people who are not motivated and not ready for coaching yet.

However, if you feel that you're ready for it, this is what I'm offering you.

I want to make sure that you are committed to your own success, and because of that, I'm going to request that you reserve your spot for a ridiculous $95.

Why $95?

Because I want to make sure that you are fully committed to the sessions.

Believe me this is not how I make money. My average coaching hour fee is $250-$350 an hour, and my clients are happy to pay that to change their life. But experience has shown me that people do not value free stuff very much, and thus do not take it seriously.

However, when people pay as little as $95 even for something that's worth much more than that, they will be much more committed.

I'm even going to go further than that.

If you feel that I didn't help you during that special coaching session package, I'll refund your 95 dollars.

If on the other hand, you are thrilled with what you're learning, and want to hire me for more coaching session, at least you'll know that you're not making a mistake in hiring me, because you will already know how I work and how I can help you.

No oops, I just hired the wrong coach, like it happened to so many people I know as well as myself.

I want you to be so happy with my coaching that not only you'll start making money with your business, but you'll refer me to your entrepreneur friends.

So what this special $95 offer includes?

- A full diagnosis of your money blocks
- A custom working plan to remove your money blocks
- A 30 day one-on-one weekly check on your progress

Warning - Time is Factor

This opportunity is limited due to the nature of the one-on-one coaching super discount that I'm offering you.

I'll be spending some valuable time with you basically for free, and I do not know for how long I will be able to do this.

But for the time being, if you are my ideal client, as specified above, and if you are willing to invest a ridiculous $95 on your financial future, my offer still stands as long as you are able to read this letter.

So, if you are a doer who wants to rock his or her world, click here. You will be taken to a secured pay button.

As soon as your transaction goes through, you'll be receiving a short questionnaire to fill out.

Once this is done, I'll be contacting you personally for our appointment day and time.
